This is a poem written by Chris Rippamonti because she is thankful for her continued good health and many blessings regardless of the what the news media continues to portray.

I'M THANKFUL

Thankful is a word
We utter every day
As we read our devotions
and bend our heads to pray.

I'm thankful for the medics
Who tend and treat the ill.
They watch and care for those -
Their duty they fulfill.

I'm thankful for the folks
Who are always on a drive
To come and deliver to
Those who stay inside.

I'm thankful for our leaders
Who try to keep us all afloat
Because as we all know
We are in the same boat.

I'm thankful for my son
And also his wife.
They call or come by every day
Make sure that I'm all right

I'm thankful for the ones
Who keep the church a'runnin'.
They give their time and talents
To make sure things are a'hummin'.

I'm thankful for my friends
I call – or they call me
Making sure that we are fine
Or as well as we can be.

I'm thankful for the birds
That come and feed, then fly away.
Seems that God has sent them
To help me pass the day.

I'm thankful for the shepherd
That Synod sent our way
To comfort and lead us
So that we will never stray.

And I'm oh so thankful
As I look upon my face
And thank the Lord for giving me
Another day of Grace.

Written with love, Chris Rippamonti

Many thanks to our giving community for being so kind to the VCAM ministry! Thanks for the giving of donations; for the giving of your time to our ministry. W/ that being said, our “volunteership” has dropped dramatically. From our normal legion of 70-plus strong, the pandemic situation has caused our numbers to drop to below fifteen. VCAM has always prided itself on being primarily a volunteer-run organization.

Our volunteers are loyal & all giving, but they are tired.

VCAM is considered an essential service to the community & the demand for food & basic needs is ever increasing in these very trying times. We follow the necessary protocols in order to remain functional: we mask, we sanitize, we distance. I am reaching out to those who are considered lower risk & are looking to answer the call to serve others. If you know of individuals or groups who you feel are equipped to serve, please contact us or have them reach out to us. Our hours of operation are Mon. – Fri., 9 a.m. – noon.

A day or two a week, a few hours a day goes a long way in serving our mission.

Your support is always valued and very much appreciated... Marc
