Silent Prayer Before Worship

Bells

Greeting

Gathering Music:

Call to Worship:

L: Let go of the things that hold you back;

C: May we be open to the movement of God's Spirit.

L: Trust in God's love for you,

C: For God's love sets us free in Christ Jesus.

L: Be ready, for God is doing something new in us;

C: Be prepared, for God is continuing to surprise us.

L: Know Jesus, and know The Way of Christ;

C: For God brings life out of death, and turns the world upside down!

L: Come, join your hearts in worship:

C: Come, let us lift our open hearts in praise to God.

HOLY BAPTISM OF EASTON MICHAEL HALL (10:30 A.M.)

LBW GREEN HYMNAL PAGE 121

Prayer of Confession and Forgiveness:

L: Even when we are faithless, Christ remains faithful.
Trusting in grace, let us confess our sins.

C: Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

We keep our distance from You, for we are broken and sick with sin.

Yet You see us and cleanse us, and make us whole. Forgive us when we forget to return to You—have mercy when we fail to praise Your name, and help us to exude the faith that makes us well.

L: Hear the good news:

Your call has been answered

Christ has healed you, and forgives your sin.

C: With glad hearts, we return praise to God

Hymn: O Christ the Healer We Have Come

LBW Green Hymnal #360

Prayer of the Day

God of the Universe and the particle,
God who has knit everything together in this web of life,
and the motion of galaxies,

we are in awe and wonder of Your works,
and the finite working You are doing in each of us.

May we be open to Your movement,
to help us to grow and change.

Push and nudge us to reach higher,
dig deeper, stretch further.

Open our hearts and minds to understand Your working in our universe, in this planet You have shared with us.

Call us to be better stewards of all You have given us:

our bodies, our minds, our world,

so that we may grow in our understanding of creation and You,
our Maker, Redeemer, and Sustainer. Amen.

Reading:

2 Timothy 2:8-15

Keep your mind on Jesus Christ! He was from the family of David and was raised from death, just as my good news says. And because of this message, I am locked up in jail and treated like a criminal. But God's good news isn't locked in jail, and so I am willing to put up with anything. Then God's special people will be saved. They will be given eternal glory because they belong to Christ Jesus. Here is a true message:

"If we died with Christ,
we will live with him.

If we don't give up,
we will rule with him.

If we deny
that we know him,
he will deny
that he knows us.

If we are not faithful,
he will still be faithful.

Christ cannot deny who he is."

Don't let anyone forget these things. And with God as your witness, you must warn them not to argue about words. These arguments don't help anyone. In fact, they ruin everyone who listens to them. Do your best to win God's approval as a worker who doesn't need to be ashamed and who teaches only the true message.

Gospel Verse: Change My Heart O God (on screen)

Gospel:

Luke 17:11-19

On his way to Jerusalem, Jesus went along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he was going into a village, ten men with leprosy came toward him. They stood at a distance and shouted, "Jesus, Master, have pity on us!"

Jesus looked at them and said, "Go show yourselves to the priests."

On their way they were healed. When one of them discovered that he was healed, he came back, shouting praises to God. He bowed down at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was from the country of Samaria.

Jesus asked, "Weren't ten men healed? Where are the other nine? Why was this foreigner the only one who came back to thank God?" Then Jesus told the man, "You may get up and go. Your faith has made you well."

Message

Hymn: Healer of Our Every Ill WOV Blue Hymnal # 738

Apostles' Creed (8:00)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried.

He descended into hell. On the third day He rose again.

He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People

L: O Jesus Christ, lover of the world, may we bring Your word to life in the streets of the community around us.

C: Give us eyes to see those who long for healing, or who live in need and loneliness.

L: Give to us Your wisdom as we relate to others, Holy Spirit, offering true respect to them and inviting life in all its fullness.

C: May we become known as those who give genuine love to friend and stranger.

L: Help us to bring true care to the diverse people we meet,

C: crossing over barriers of difference, so that the world may see in action a love which goes beyond its own and reaches out to all.

L: Live within us, Jesus Christ.

C: Expand our minds and hearts and souls, so that we may relate to others with generosity and kindness, no matter what the challenges to that love may be.

L: Call to us through the voices of those who feel deserted by the world, as people turn their faces away.

Give to us a grace which echoes Your grace, loving Christ, in spite of our humanity.

C: Then stay with us as we walk the road which stretches before us on this day.

Sharing the Peace of the Lord

Offering

Offertory Response: Take My Life (on screen)

Offertory Prayer:

We make our offerings, small and large, with the hope and confidence that all we do, all we offer, all we say, all we think, and all we hope will take root in this world and be the source of new expressions of God's love, of God's justice, of God's character, of God's mission, and of God's reign. May God's will be done on earth as it is in heaven through us, alongside us, despite us, and for us. Amen.

Words of Institution (8:00)

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Last Week's Metrics

Attendance: 10-6 10:00: 287 Pastor Barney's Retirement

Offerings:	General Fund	Benevolence	Trinity Growth
Envelopes:	$ 5,647	$ 442	$ 1,476
Online Giving:	$1,484	$ 80	$ 595

Our Average Expenses in 2018 were $6600/week, every week. This includes: $4566/week for Salaries and Benefits, $ 700/week for Utilities, $ 502/week for Insurance, and $ 832/week for Supplies, Ministries, Routine Maintenance and all other items

The Trinity Growth Program is used to pay our mortgage, which is about $1220/week.

Benevolence Offerings are sent each month to our Southwestern Texas Synod, where it is used for many church-wide ministries and to support the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA).

These averages are intended to give you an idea of what it takes to maintain our facilities and minister to the congregation and the community around us. Of course, there is much more detail, if you are interested. Our books are always open to any member of the congregation, and I would be very excited to sit down with you and answer any questions you might have.

Thank you for all you do and your generous support.

The next VCAM Saturday! is Saturday, October 19.

Please check out our website at: www.vcamvictoria.org or our Facebook page for the list of VCAM services provided and additional VCAM Saturday! dates in the coming months (always open the third Saturday of each month).

Canned veggies...or more specifically, canned corned. Our supply has constantly run out and we need to fill the pantry shelves w/ one of the most popular items. And throw in some canned mixed vegetables and beans. These are normal stock items, items that our clients always request.

VCAM is reaching out to help replenish inventory. Our primary resource to obtain these items has fallen short to restock as the need requires it. One can, two cans...twelve cans! We will take whatever number you can (pun intended) provide. At home, at the job or at the store: Please reach out to help those most in need in our community, especially as we approach the holiday season.

And we won't discriminate against the canned fruit variety! VCAM will take those, too!! Plan a canned or packaged item holiday drive as we come to the close of the year. We will provide the flyers to promote and the drums or boxes to collect. In fact, we will pick up!!!

Matthew 25:34-40 "Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, my Father has blessed you! Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world. I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat. I was thirsty, and you gave me something to drink. I was a stranger, and you took me into your home. I needed clothes, and you gave me something to wear...'"

And yes, please think of those who lack in clothing; think of the homeless, as fall, and before you know, winter is upon us. The VCAM Family Closet clothing store is now open four days out of the week, so give so others may have.

Let us not forget that the services VCAM provides are for those in the community who we have worked alongside, that our kids have attended school w/ and that we have sat next to in church.

Your support is always valued and very much appreciated.

God bless... Marc
